Projects

3rd year project

Created an Android application that tracked a user's steps taken during the day and also the distanced travelled. A score of the user's activity level would then be calculated using fuzzy logic.

Final year project
https://github.com/diggs1711/AnalysisEngine

Developed a web application that tracked how a student was progressing with their final year project throughout the year.

Reddit Bot
https://github.com/diggs1711/reddit-discogs-bot

Displays the discogs information about a record by parsing the title of the song from the submission of a link on reddit.

Work Experience

April 2015 - September 2015

Technology Consultant Deloitte, Dublin
Co-op
Worked as part of an agile team for a large public sector client. Worked on the backend and frontend writing unit tests, refactoring code, and helping to write new features requested by the client.

June 2016

Olive Branch for Children
Mbeya, Tanzania
Developed an Android application, written in Javascript using Apache Cordova. The app helped local business owners record their sales and expenses in simple and easy way.

September 2016 - Present

Technology Consultant Deloitte, Dublin
Analyst

Currently working on the same project I was working on during my Co-op at Deloitte, with a focus on backend development.
